Petitioner is present on her own behalf. Respondent is present on his own behalf.

A record of the proceedings is made by audio and/or videotape in lieu of a court reporter.

Discussion is held regarding the status of the case. The Court is advised the parties have reached a full agreement regarding legal decision making and parenting time.

After discussion the parties reach a final parenting time agreement which is dictated into the record in the presence of both parties and can be generally summarized as follows:

- The Federal tax exemption shall be allocated so that Mother may claim Jocelyn A. Michel Burgara every year.
- The party obligated to pay child support may only take the Federal tax exemption for the minor child in years for which they are current with all monthly child support and arrears obligations as of December 31 of the year for which the child is claimed.

Petitioner and Respondent both testify that they have heard and understood the agreement as dictated into the record, and that this is, in fact, their agreement.
